

MasterChef star and Beehive Ambassador Kumar Pereira helped celebrate the 45th anniversary.
Picture: John Appleyard

MILESTONE FOR SOCIAL SERVICE

Heather McNab

BEEHIVE Industries Co-Operative has celebrated 45 years of providing support to senior Sydneysiders and those living with disability.

The Darlinghurst-based social enterprise, which provides programs to assist with social isolation, has tirelessly worked towards improving the quality of life of those in need.

Last Thursday, Beehive rang in another year of service with an anniversary celebration, fronted by MasterChef star and Beehive Ambassador Kumar Pereira.

Mr Pereira has worked with Beehive to launch a low-cost meals for seniors program, which aims to aid seniors in their efforts to cook healthily and with ease on a limited budget.

Coinciding with the start of Senior's Week, the anniversary celebrations also featured the launch of the Beehive Co-Operative's anniversary ebook.

The not-for-profit enterprise already provides clients with two hot meals a day, along with opportunities to work, computer training, transport, regular outings and excursions, among many other services, with the aim of creating a socially inclusive place for clients to lead a dignified and purpose-filled life.